

Philippe Beau / The Ballet with Ten Fingers
The handshadows in the pure state

Fascinated by sleights of hand, Philippe Beau has evolved a shadow show of great and refined elegance. Truly original, he brings a new light on the shadow show in which, usually, the subjects appear already formed on the screen. Here, they are done in front of the audience by the only means of the flowing movements of his fingers.

No sound

No decoration

Its total simplicity is all the more moving

Philippe Beau is a shadowgrapher. He produces and performs hand shadows all over the world. Author, creator and consultant, he is now acknowledged as a worldwide specialist in the art of shadows.

His shadowgraphy shows are highly developed and flowing hands ballets. Characters and animals appear and follow each other in a morphing process. Figures gracefully and cinematically emerge with fingers entwined.
